

Best benefits package in the industry.

When it comes to regulators, the CS800IQ has all the perks. A solid multi-tasker, it's built on a modular platform that covers a broad range of applications. Flexibility is important in the workplace — and the CS800IQ features a wide selection of overpressure protection options to meet your needs. Offering increased flow and relief performance, it's an industry leader. What's more, it's designed to reduce cost of ownership, including training and maintenance costs. This is one hard worker you definitely want on your team.
